What is Dress for Success?

Dress for Success Pittsburgh-Washington Branch is an opportunity for you to receive clothing to help you succeed in the workplace.

At Dress for Success you will receive the individual attention of your own personal clothing consultant who will spend about an hour with you to make sure you look your best at a job interview, first day on the job or in training.

Dress for Success will help you with the items you need to start employment or participate in a training program such as:

- ↳ Clothes
- ↳ Shoes
- ↳ Hosiery and under garments
- ↳ Accessories such as jewelry and purses, as available
- ↳ Hair and Makeup tips

What do I need to do?

1. Contact your case manager at your training program, or your County Assistance Office (CAO) and ask for help with the clothing you need to go on a job interview, accept a job or participate in training.
2. Your caseworker/case manager will explain the benefits you will receive from Dress for Success and will make a referral and/or schedule an appointment for you.
3. Your caseworker/case manager will give you a copy of the referral form to take with you to the appointment.
4. Go to Dress for Success and meet with a personal clothing consultant who will help you select interview clothes, or the specific type of clothing that you need for training or employment so you look your very best on the job or as you attend training to prepare you for work.

Where is Dress for Success located?
